KINSEY, Floyd and Viola Giles

James Floyd Kinsey was born in Park City, Utah on Aug. 1, 1902. The family moved to Midway and when he was just 9 years old, his father died suddenly, leaving a family of four small boys. Since Floyd was the oldest, he carried a great deal of responsibility with the family and learned the necessity of hard work while he was young. He attended grade school in Midway and was a very good student. Floyd married Viola Giles when he was twenty-nine.

After a courtship of two years, the two eloped and were married in Nephi — but one year later they were married and sealed in the Salt Lake Temple. Their marriage was beautiful for both of them. They soon purchased a home in the Second Ward and lived there about eight years at which time they moved into the Giles home to care for Viola's mother. Floyd worked for the Utah State Road for 35 years and was a very capable patrol operator. He worked these years in the Strawberry and Heber valley. He served in the Church as a ward clerk and a councilor to Bishop Leonard Giles. He was then sustained as stake clerk to President Cummings. These were special fulfilling years in his life. When a very serious illness overtook Floyd, his health was restored to him after a special family fast and a blessing from Pres. Cummings. This allowed him the health he needed to care for his sweetheart, Viola during her years of illness. Floyd was a very patient and kind man to her.

He loved to garden and his gardens were "nearly perfect" and he was able to raise one until he was eightyone years old. His motto was to work hard today so you will always be ready for tomorrow. Floyd died at the age of 82 on Mar. 1, 1984.

Viola Giles was born on Sept. 5, 1909 to William and Rachel Ann Giles. She was born in the family home and was a Second Ward member her entire life. She was afflicted with fever while a young girl which affected her heart, and she carried that condition throughout her life. But this did not keep her from having many accomplishments. She loved the outdoors and would help take care of the cows, walking them to the pasture each morning, rake the hay, and help her dad herd sheep in Lake Creek and Wolf Creek areas.

When she entered and attended school, it was found she possessed many talents. She was outstanding, especially in debate, and dramatics, and algebra. She won honors for herself and the school in debate. She loved sports and won trophies in tennis and softball.

Viola had a strong testimony of the gospel and taught many principles with her life. She served as Primary President, Counselor, teacher of the Trekker and Seagull classes and Counselor in the Y.W.M.I.A. She also served on Primary Stake Board.

She was a true Democrat and loved politics and good government. She acted for many years as a Democratic Chairman. Her talents as a leader proved very good and she received acknowledgements for her good work. She also served on the Wasatch Welfare Board.

Floyd and Viola had two daughters. Gaye, who married Bert Webster, and Joan, who married Larry Duke.

Viola passed away on December 15, 1971.
